An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

Applicant filed two Information Disclosure Statements on 12/20/04 and 03/07/05. All references have been considered. However, a majority of the documents listed on

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The subject matter of the independent claims could either not be found or was not suggested in the prior art of record.

With respect to claim 2 & its dependants, the subject matter not found was the combination of a first sealed primary container containing a separation medium that is one of a gel, beads, and a float device, and a sealed secondary container containing an ionic coagulation activator and a transfer device providing fluid communication between the first and second containers in combination with the other elements (or steps) in the claims. With respect to claim 6 & its dependants, the subject matter not found was the combination of a first sealed primary container containing a separation medium that is for separating red blood cells from plasma and having a first pressure, and a sealed secondary container containing an ionic ionic-coagulation activator and having a second pressure lower than the pressure of the first container, and a transfer device comprising a cannula having first and second ends for puncturing the sealed ends of the containers, and wherein the first and second ends are each covered by a retractable elastomeric sleeve in combination with the other elements (or steps) in the claims.
